

Copyright and Intellectual Property

Copy these notes:

Hmwk: Find out what copyright means:

Copyright:

- © Protects the work.
- © Indicates that it is an original work and the creator must be informed of its use / acknowledged.
- © You must have permission from the creator of the work – if you want to copy / use it.

Intellectual property:

- © Someone's original / unique idea / work.
- © You should not copy the work exactly without their permission.

Article:

'Say it on your shirt'.

- Read , highlight key facts.
- Answer following questions.

1. What do I think about 'Copyright'?
2. How will this affect me in this project?
3. What will I do?
4. An interesting fact I found out from reading this article – what / why.

BE ORIGINAL !!